Dear [REDACTED],

Freedom of Information 22/81317

I refer to your application made under section 30 of the Freedom of Information Act 2016 (the Act) received by the Environment, Planning and Sustainable Development Directorate (EPSDD) on 24 June 2022 seeking:

“Documents relating to the traffic study and related correspondence for Alice Moyle Way, Whitlam”

I am an Information Officer appointed under section 18 of the Act to deal with access applications made under Part 5 of the Act.

EPSDD must make a decision on your application on or by 12 August 2022.

Searches Conducted

Comprehensive searches were conducted by EPSDD Development and Implementation team for documents relevant to your application.

Decision on Access

One document was located that fell within the scope of your request.

I have included as Attachment A to this decision the schedule of the document relevant to the scope of your request. The schedule provides a description of the document and the access to the document.

I have decided to grant partial access to the document relevant to your request as I consider information contained within the document would, on balance, be contrary to public interest to disclose under the test set out in section 17 of the Act.

I have decided to grant access, under section 50 of the Act, to a copy of the document with deletions applied to the information that I consider would be contrary to public interest to disclose. My access decision is detailed further in the following statement of reasons and the document released to you is provided as Attachment B to this letter.

Material Considered

In reaching my access decision, I have taken the following into account:

- the FOI Act, particularly sections 17, 50, Schedule 2;
- the Information Privacy Act 2014;
- the content of the documents that fell within the scope of your request;
- Concerns and views raised by third parties and;

Public Interest Considerations

My reasons for deciding to not grant access to documents, and components of the documents are explained below; these documents contain information that I consider to be contrary to the public interest to disclose.

Information Disclosure – Contrary to the Public Interest under schedule 2 of the Act

The Act recognises the right of every person to obtain access, under its provisions, to government information (see section 7, the Act). As an Information Officer, I am required to allow access to information subject to the Act unless, on balance, disclosure would be contrary to the public interest.

In accessing the public interest, I must apply the test outlined under section 17 of the Act which requires consideration of factors favouring disclosure, any favouring non-disclosure and the balance of those factors when considered cumulatively.

Factors Favouring Disclosure

Disclosure of the identified information could reasonably be expected to do the following:

- Schedule 2.1(a)(i) – promote open discussion of public affairs and enhance the government’s accountability;
- Schedule 2.1(a)(ii) – contribute to positive and informed debate on important issues or matters of public interest;
- Schedule 2.1(a)(viii) – reveal the reason for a government decision and any background or contextual information that informed the decision.

Factors favouring Non-disclosure

In applying the public interest test, I have determined that disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to do the following and meet relevant factors favouring non-disclosure:

- Schedule 2.2(a)(ii) – prejudice the protection of an individual’s right to privacy or any other right under the Human Rights Act 2004;

Personal Information

The document scheduled for partial release contains information that falls within the meaning or personal information as defined by the Act.

I have considered the release of personal information and my view in this instance is that the identification of third-party information would not serve to further open discussion, government accountability, informed debate and the provision of contextual or background information.

I am satisfied that the disclosure of this personal information could reasonably be expected to prejudice the protection of an individual's right to privacy under the Human Rights Act 2004. This is a factor favouring nondisclosure under Schedule 2, section 2.2(a)(ii) of the Act.

In balancing public interest considerations, I am satisfied that, on the information available, disclosure of the identified personal information may constitute a breach of privacy and is therefore contrary to the public interest.

Online Publication

Under section 28 of the Act, EPSDD maintains an online record of access applications called a disclosure log. Your original access application, this decision and documents released will be published in the EPSDD disclosure log no earlier than three days after you receive this decision. Your personal contact details will not be published. You may view the EPSDD disclosure log at <https://www.environment.act.gov.au/about-us/access-government-information/disclosure-log>

Ombudsman Review

My decision on your access request is a reviewable decision as identified in Schedule 3 of the Act. You have the right to seek Ombudsman review of this outcome under section 73 of the Act within 20 working days from the day that my decision is published in the disclosure log, or a longer period allowed by the Ombudsman.
