Dear FOI team

Please accept my request under the ACT Freedom of Information Act 2016 for all documents informing the approval of DA202139248-02-DECISION AFTER ACAT REMITTED DA BACK TO AUTHORITY, which Notice of Decision dated 2 December 2022, is attached. I do not need documents regarding the original Notice of Decision for DA202139248 so information I require will be dated post the ACAT orders of 23 September 2022.

Documents could be emails, records, agendas of meetings, records of phone conversations dated after 23 September and may include but not limited to;

- All EPD communication informing the NOD condition of approval concerning the Crown Leases for Blocks 13 and 22, Kingston;
- All EPD communication with and response from the applicant, Purdon Planning, on behalf of the developer, Geocon, pertaining to the preparation of the new Notice of Decision for DA202139248-02-DECISION AFTER ACAT REMITTED DA BACK TO AUTHORITY;
- Any EPD request to and representation and/or associated communication from all entities and agencies concerning DA202139248-02-DECISION AFTER ACAT REMITTED DA BACK TO AUTHORITY;
- Any EPD communication with ACAT after 23/09/2022;

I request that all processing fees be waived as this information is of special benefit to the 105 public representers in opposition to this proposed and approved development and with a view to further appeal to ACAT imminent. It is in the public interest that government decision making be transparent and lawful. This request is made with the presumption of release under section 7 of the 2016 Freedom of Information Act and is made in the public interest which is to have available information which allows the public to see how government and its agencies operate. It meets the objectives of Section 6 of the Act. Please phone me on [REDACTED] if you need clarification of this request. Thank you so much for your attention to the detail. Please take account that there is a time limit of 28 days from 9 December 2022 for representers to appeal to ACAT.

Regards
