CINEMA CENTER
Block 21 Section 35
CITY

The nomination claims that the Cinema Center has special associations with the life and work of Canberra architect Enrico Taglietti, and that it demonstrates creative achievement in the way Taglietti solved his brief to design a viable complex of shops, offices and cinema, by locating the cinema underground.

The nomination also claims the place is significant as the first underground cinema in Australia and is important for its strong contribution to the history and cinema entertainment in the ACT.
