Dear

Freedom of Information 21/49575

I refer to your application made under section 30 of the Freedom of Information Act 2016 (the Act) received by the Environment, Planning and Sustainable Development Directorate (EPSDD) on 3 June 2021, in which you sought access to information relating to the Molonglo Stage 3 Planning and Infrastructure Study.

Specifically, you are seeking:

"Please provide me with a copy of the "Molonglo Stage 3, Planning and Infrastructure Study" (the Study). The Study has been released from EPSDD to ACT Suburban Land Agency recently (end of May 2021). The Study is the product of the tender described in "Molonglo 3 East Planning and Infrastructure Study Project Brief" (2 December 2019). I am unaware of the tender number or closing date, unfortunately."

I am an Information Officer appointed under section 18 of the Act to deal with access applications made under Part 5 of the Act.

Due to consultation with a third party and your agreement to extensions to the decision date, EPSDD must make a decision on your application on or by 2 November 2021. Thank you for your patience in this matter.

Searches Conducted

Comprehensive searches were conducted and one document containing information within the scope of your application was identified.

Decision on Access

I have included as Attachment A to this decision the schedule of relevant documents. The schedule provides a description of the document that falls within the scope of your application and the access decision for this document.

I have decided to grant partial access to the document and, in accordance with section 50 of the Act, provide you with copies of documents with deletions applied to contrary to the public interest information.

My access decisions are detailed further in the following statement of reasons and the documents released to you are provided as Attachment B to this letter.

Material Considered

In reaching my access decision, I have taken the following into account:

- the FOI Act, particularly sections 6, 17, 38, 50 and Schedule 2
- the content of the documents that fall within the scope of your request
- the Human Rights Act 2004
- the views of third party consulted

Public Interest Considerations

My reasons for deciding not to grant access to certain documents and components of these documents are as follows:

Information Disclosure – Schedule 2 of the Act

The Act recognises the right of every person to obtain access, under its provisions, to government information (see section 7, the Act). As an Information Officer, I am required to allow access to information subject to the Act, unless, on balance, disclosure would be contrary to the public interest.

In assessing the public interest, I must apply the test outlined under section 17 of the Act which requires consideration of factors favouring disclosure, any favouring nondisclosure and the balance of those factors when considered cumulatively.

Factors Favouring Disclosure

In applying the public interest test, I have determined that disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to do the following:

- Schedule 2, 2.1(a)(i) – promote open discussion of public affairs and enhance the government's accountability
- Schedule 2, 2.1(a)(viii) – reveal the reason for a government decision and any background or contextual information that informed the decision

Factors favouring Nondisclosure

In applying the public interest test, I have determined that disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to do the following:

- Schedule 2, 2.2(a)(ii) – prejudice the protection of an individual's right to privacy or any other right under the Human Rights Act 2004.

Personal Information

The document relevant to your application contains personal information of individuals employed by a third party. The third party raised objections to the release of employees' personal information (names and signatures).

I have considered how the public interest would be advanced by releasing this information in part or in whole. It is my view that the information if disclosed, could reasonably be expected to prejudice the protection of an individual's right to privacy under section 12 of the Human Rights Act 2004. On balance, and the information available to me, I am satisfied that the disclosure of this personal information is not in the public interest.

To provide you with the information that I have determined to be in the public interest to release, a copy of the document have been prepared with personal information redacted in accordance with section 50 and the Objects of the Act. These redactions are minor in nature.

Charges

In accordance with section 107(2)(b) of the Act any charges applicable are waived.

Online Publication

Under section 28 of the Act, EPSDD maintains an online record of access applications called a disclosure log. Your original access application, this decision and documents released will be published in the EPSDD disclosure log no earlier than three days after you receive this decision. Your personal contact details will not be published.

You may view the EPSDD disclosure log at
