Dear [REDACTED]

Decision on Freedom of Information Access Application 22/130542

I refer to your application made under section 30 of the Freedom of Information Act 2016 (the Act) received by the Environment, Planning and Sustainable Development Directorate (EPSDD) on 28 September 2022, in which you sought access to documents relating to closure of the Green Waste Facility on Stockdill Drive.

Specifically, you are seeking:

“a copy of any correspondence between Minister Gentleman and his office and/or Minister Steel and his office and/or the Environment, Planning and Sustainable Development Directorate in relation to closure of the Green Waste Facility on Stockdill drive (DA202240118) from February 2022 until present, including Ministerial briefs for both Ministers, emails, Microsoft Teams messages, meeting agendas and summaries and attachments”.

I am an Information Officer appointed under section 18 of the Act to deal with access applications made under Part 5 of the Act.

As agreed by you, EPSDD must make a decision on your application on or by 29 November 2022.

Searches Conducted

Comprehensive searches were conducted and 17 documents containing information within the scope of your application were identified. Five documents are duplicate versions so were not included within the scope of the application.

Decision on Access

I have included as Attachment A to this decision the schedule of relevant documents. The schedule provides a description of each document that falls within the scope of your application and the access decision for each of those documents.

I have decided to grant full access to 6 documents relevant to your application.

I have decided to grant partial access to 6 documents and, in accordance with section 50 of the Act, provide you with copies of documents with deletions applied to contrary to the public interest information.

My access decisions are detailed further in the following statement of reasons and the documents released to you are provided as Attachment B to this letter.

Material Considered

In reaching my access decision, I have taken the following into account:

- the FOI Act, particularly sections 6, 17, 50, Schedule 2
- the content of the documents that fall within the scope of your request
- the Human Rights Act 2004

Public Interest Considerations

My reasons for deciding not to grant access to certain documents and components of these documents are as follows:

Information Disclosure – Schedule 2 of the Act

The Act recognises the right of every person to obtain access, under its provisions, to government information (see section 7, the Act). As an Information Officer, I am required to allow access to information subject to the Act, unless, on balance, disclosure would be contrary to the public interest.

In assessing the public interest, I must apply the test outlined under section 17 of the Act which requires consideration of factors favouring disclosure, any favouring nondisclosure and the balance of those factors when considered cumulatively.

Factors Favouring Disclosure

In applying the public interest test, I have determined that disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to do the following:

- Schedule 2, 2.1(a)(ii) - contribute to positive and informed debate on important issues or matters of public interest.
- Schedule 2, 2.1(a)(viii) – reveal the reason for a government decision and any background or contextual information that informed the decision.

Factors favouring Nondisclosure

In applying the public interest test, I have determined that disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to do the following:

- Schedule 2, 2.2(a)(ii) – prejudice the protection of an individual’s right to privacy or any other right under the Human Rights Act 2004.

Personal Information

Documents 4, 5 and 6 contain personal information of individuals. I have considered how the public interest would be advanced by releasing this information in part or in whole. It is my view that the protection of the individuals’ personal information outweighs the benefit which may be derived from releasing the information. I consider that these individuals are entitled to expect that the personal information they have supplied to ACT Government will be dealt with in a manner that protects their privacy. I consider that if this information was disclosed, it could reasonably be expected to prejudice the protection of an individual’s right to privacy under section 12 of the Human Rights Act 2004. On balance, and based on the information available to me, I am satisfied that the disclosure of this personal information is not in the public interest.

To provide you with the information that I have determined to be in the public interest to release, copies of some documents have been prepared with personal information redacted in accordance with section 50 and the Objects of the Act.

Charges

No charges are applicable to this application.

Online Publication

Under section 28 of the Act, EPSDD maintains an online record of access applications called a disclosure log. Your original access application, this decision and documents released will be published in the EPSDD disclosure log no earlier than three days after you receive this decision. Your personal contact details will not be published.

You may view the EPSDD disclosure log at
